

Better Information = Better
Decisions = Better Cost Effectiveness

Date:

Friday 9th April 2010 to Saturday 10th April
2010

Time:

Friday 9th:
2pm – 9pm
Saturday 10th:
9am – 12.30pm

Venue:

Royal College of Physicians of Ireland
South Frederick Street
Dublin 2

Presentations:

Ulster Hospital
Maelor Hospital
Intelsens
Robert Bosch GmbH
Boffbex
St James Hospital
University of Limerick
BioBusiness

Register:

Michelle Kelly
Tel: 028 9073 7947
Email:
michelle@biobusinessni.org

Event Profile

The Royal College of Physicians of Ireland in association with BioBusiness wish to invite you to a 2-day event that will focus on technology in healthcare and in particular Connected Health. The seminar provides an opportunity for Academia, Business and Clinical representatives to meet and discuss opportunities for joint research, new product development and clinical need.

Programme

Friday 9 th April 2010
2.00	The Ulster Hospital IT System	Dr Roy Harper Ulster Hospital
2.40	EPOC IT Systems	Dr Farook Jishi Wrexham Maelor Hospital
3.20	Non invasive monitoring – what's new	Michael Caufield Intelsens
4.00	Coffee
4.20	The Connected Health Paradigm	Eman Martin-Vignerte Robert Bosch GmbH
4.40	Patientrack – what's new	Sam Hollander
5.20	Will Recession cause Irish hospital medicine to follow the British Acute Medicine Model	Dr Chris Subbe Wrexham Maelor Hospital
6.00	Close
7.30	Reception followed by dinner
Saturday 10 th April 2010
9.30	Better Care through Collaboration & Networking	Dr Chris Subbe Wrexham Maelor Hospital
9.50	Inter-Net-Working, using the internet for Quality Assurance & Benchmarking	Ian Malcolm Boffbex
10.30	Coffee
10.50	Lab data and patient outcomes – Dublin with Limerick	Dr Bernard Silke St James Hospital
11.20	CART analysis – getting more from data	Dr Jean Saunders University of Limerick
11.50	Connected Health in Ireland	Dr Declan Bogan BioBusiness
12.20	Close	